

Crazy About You

Don Poythress, Brian White, and Chris Eaton

Verse 1:

He sends you flowers every Spring, and a brand new sunrise every morning.
Fields of white that sparkle on a winter's day like diamonds reflecting His glory.
Don't tell me you can't see it.
Don't tell you can't feel it.
Cause deep within your heart you know it's...You know it's true.

Chorus:

He's crazy 'bout...Crazy about you,
And He wants you to know
He'd rather die than live without you
So He gave His life to show
That He's captured by your beauty,
And you don't even have clue
The God above is crazy, crazy about you.

Verse 2:

He lights a million candles every night across the sky; soothes your weary soul with healing rain.
He wraps His arms around you with a gentle breeze, and hears you every time you call His name.
It doesn't matter how far you stumble.
It doesn't matter if your faith is crumbled.
Believe it or not, I've got good news.

Chorus:

Bridge:

He could have lived on the far side of the universe, but that was way too far.

He wanted to be a little closer, right inside your heart.
