

Everything

By Chris Eaton and Phil Stacey

Verse 1:

Truth is, I never knew just how much I needed you

Till the day you broke through to me.

I was satisfied living life in black and white

Missing all the treasure you made me.

Lighting strikes and I am yours

In that moment I am sure

You're the one I'm living for.

Chorus:

I can see you in everything.

I can hear you in everything.

I can feel you in everything.

Verse 2:

Feels like I'm coming home.

Nowhere else I'd rather go.

Like a river runs to the sea.

And if my world should fall apart,

And I'm stumbling in the dark,

I'll just follow my heart.

Chorus:

Bridge:

All life testifies to you glorious name,

And my life from now on will never be the same.

Chorus:

I will praise you for everything.

I will thank you for everything.

I will love you in everything.
