

My Dove

By : Leah Faith

Verse 1:

Seems I lost a battle today, but I haven't lost the war.
When I stood for your truth, and I met a beggar's scorn.
But your righteousness prevails,
In a world that fails to tell of a Savior's love.
And even in this test, I can find my rest...You are my rest...my rest.

Chorus:

You are the dove in silver, feathers shined with gold.
Display your holy splendor high upon your throne.
Hide me in your wings...your wings... my sweet dove.
When I am surrounded in times of no relief,
I know where I can find your heavenly peace .
It's in your wings...your wings...my sweet dove .

Verse 2:

Seems I lost a battle today, but I haven't lost the war.
Cause in a flash you will come, and you'll take the ones you adore.
And your righteousness prevails,
In a world that fails to tell of a Savior's love
And even in this test, I can find my rest... You are my rest....my rest

Chorus

Bridge:

So come, come, come...my dove.

Chorus:

Written by Leah Faith, Licensed by A&K Music (ASCAP)