

Rain Stay

Leah Faith and Dave Rivers

Verse 1:

You tapped the glass from away.
Your tears rolled down the window's face.
Welcome back to this sun, parched, place.
It's good to see you again.

Verse 2:

I can't recall when I heard you last.
The still, soft sound to my soundless past.
Oh, the way you danced in winter's grasp.
I missed you my old friend.

Chorus:

Stay a little longer.
You've made me stronger,
And now I see.
I can't decide when you go away,
But today I'm glad to see you, Rain...Stay.

Verse 3:

I think of you...remember me?
The dust you left by that withered tree.
The dry old pond and cattail reeds.
I'm glad you found your way. Now I Pray...Please.

Chorus:

End:

Rain, Rain don't go away please stay again for another day.
